FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suffolk County, NY (Summer 2011) – PW Grosser Consulting, an Environmental Consulting and Engineering firm is proud to announce that their Vice President and Chief Operating Officer (COO) Frank P. Castellano, PG has been appointed to the executive board of the Long Island Business Development Council (LIBDC).

Castellano who received his masters in Hydrogeology from Adelphi University and his bachelor's in Water Resources from SUNY Oneonta has been with PWGC for over 19 years and has extensive experience in serving public and private clients on Long Island and throughout the New York metropolitan area. With his exceptional environmental consulting knowledge Castellano has developed a reputation for formulating very practical solutions to very complex environmental challenges and providing a high level of client service in support of real property transactions for private equity investors, developers, and lending institutions.

As COO Castellano is a vital part of the firm's management team and is responsible for the development of much of the firm's clientele, professional staff and individual business lines.

In addition to his responsibilities at PWGC, Castellano is also very active in the Long Island business community, where he frequently speaks on topics ranging from environmental risk management to the demands associated with the governance and growth of environmental consulting firms in the Long Island marketplace.

PWGC is proud of Frank Castellano on all of his achievements over the past years and would especially like to congratulate him on his new position on the LIBDC executive board.
